Howard Berman, formerly of Wallenius Wilhelmsen Logistics Americas, K Line America, Inc. and Kerr Steamship Company, Inc., will be joining the consulting unit of Metro Group Maritime.

Mr. Berman's duties will include advising steamship lines on how to improve processes and techniques within credit and collections. Additionally, Mr. Berman will be conducting in-house training seminars for MGM staff.

"Howie's twenty-five plus years experience in the industry will be a great asset to MGM and our clients," said Marcus Arky, general counsel for Metro Group Maritime.

Mr. Berman said he is excited to share his knowledge and experience with Metro Group Maritime's steamship line clients and his new colleagues.

Metro Group Maritime, with offices in New York City and Genoa, Italy, is a commercial receivable management, debt recovery and consulting company focusing on the maritime and transportation industry.
